Choose one way, round trip, or multi city option, the destination(s), the date(s) you wish to fly, and the number of passengers.

Enter the promotional code horizon at the bottom of the reservation section.

The screenshots below give you what the pages will look like. On the left is the selection field, and on the right is your results page, after you click on "Search flights". Select the flight time of your choice by clicking on the large bar that quotes the price (it will change to burgundy). Check the "I accept general terms of sale" box and click on "Book as a guest". You'll be taken to the passenger profile page. Once you've completed that, hit "Book" and it will take you to Booking Reference page. See next page of this document.

The screenshot displays the Tropic Air website interface. On the left, the search form includes options for "One way", "Round trip", and "Multi City". The origin is set to "Belize City Gidsn Intl - BZE" and the destination is "San Pedro - SPR". The departure date is "01/01/2018" and the return date is "15/01/2018". There is a checkbox for "My travel dates are flexible" and a promotional code field containing "horizon". A "Search flights" button is at the bottom of the form.

The main content area shows the search results for "Belize City Gidsn Intl - BZE" to "San Pedro - SPR". A calendar at the top indicates that all dates from Friday, Dec 29 to Thursday, Jan 04 have a price of 79.25 USD. Below this, a table lists flight options for "EVERYDAY" with departure times from 07:40 to 10:40. Each option shows a price of 79.25 USD. On the right, a "Your selection" panel shows two round-trip options: one for 79.25 USD and another for 78.50 USD. A summary at the bottom right shows a total of 157.75 USD, including a 151.00 USD fare and an 8.75 USD taxes fee. A "PNR total amount" of 157.75 USD is also displayed. At the bottom, there are buttons for "Log on to book" and "Book as a guest".

Included in the Final Price: The Government of Belize and the Belize Airport Authority require that all Belizean airlines collect a $6.00 rider fee on all ticket segments. The rider fee will be charged on every ticket issued regardless of any discount. Example: BZE – SPR, $6.00; BZE – SPR – BZE, $12.00; BZE – SPR – TZA – PLI $18.00.

Tech Help: Should you get an error while trying to book (tech gremlins happen occasionally) please try any or all of the following: refresh your browser window a few times, try a new browser if you have one, or reboot your computer.

Tropic Air Guidelines: Allow an hour upon landing at the international airport to clear customs, before checking in for your Tropic Air flight. For the return flight, Tropic Air recommends that you schedule your domestic transfer to arrive at Philip S.W. Goldson International Airport at least three hours ahead of any international flight. All international airlines now have a one-hour cut-off window for check-in, which is strictly enforced. On weekends it can get congested at PGIA, especially at the departure passport control (where you receive an exit stamp).

Customer Service: Should you arrive at your Belize destination before your luggage, Tropic Air will do everything they can to find lost or delayed baggage. A good example of that is the San Pedro Serendipity story on AmbergrisCaye.com Belize message board. A bag filled with credit cards, favorite beach clothes and $1600USD was returned to San Pedro Airport from its unknown travels. For more, see the Tropic Air Reviews with traveler flight photos on TripAdvisor Belize.

taco Tip: If you find yourself with a bit of time on your hands at the airport, you can park yourself near Jet's Bar; a great place for people watching or to enjoy a pre-flight cocktail. You can read about Jet's antics in my Flight from Mexico to Belize post. If you are looking for a snack, Le Petit Cafe makes great Johnny cakes, (aka journey cake) a small biscuit easily carried on a long trip.
